Profile

With 10 years of experience in digital design and currently serving as a Design Lead, I specialize in leading global cross-functional teams to deliver intuitive user experiences. Skilled in product design for diverse portfolio globally in B2C, B2B and B2E environments with clients in finance, telecom, chemicals, e-commerce and government.

My approach revolves around a 'People First' mindset, evident in my design philosophy and team management ethos. I believe in ethical design and I'm intrigued by how AI is shaping the future of design and technology.

Work experience

Present Lead Designer at Deloitte Digital
Oct, 2017
Led the US offshore design teams, closely collaborating with designers, project managers and engineers using agile methodology to discover, define, design, and deliver digital products.

Navigated diverse landscapes, engaging hands-on with both small and large teams, managing end-to-end delivery including discovery, ideation, design systems, crafting pixel-perfect screens, rapid prototyping, nurturing client relationships, and ensuring seamless handovers to development teams.

Aug, 2017 Senior Designer at AO Design
Mar, 2011
Led projects for boutique clients across industries such as fashion, real estate, and hospitality, crafting a strong aesthetic sense. Mentored juniors and worked hands-on in web/print projects. These experiences honed a sharp design eye, particularly valuable for UI design, and cultivated strong negotiation skills essential for client interactions.

Feb, 2011 Graphic Designer at The Republic
Oct, 2010
Worked on advertising campaigns, delving into design principles. Collaborated with marketing teams to align creative outputs with digital strategies, managing their daily needs.

Apr, 2010 Intern at The Brand Harvest
Mar, 2010
Practised foundational graphic design principles while assisting senior designers.
